WE learn from a friend, who has just returned from Nsshville, that the Industrial Exposition has been a most and the revolutionary amendments. Industrial Exposition has been a most and the revolutionary amendments; ments are there and will stand. Mr. every cleared acre of land in the decided success. The receipts up to last Monday exceeded the expenditures by several thousand dollars. The interest is unabated during this week, and the crowds attending the Exposition are very large and much delighted. The Exposition is in the highest degree creditable to the industry and skill and mechanical genius of the people of Middle Tennessee. It demthe amendments to the Constituit would be for the States.

Nature has done everything for us, and we need only be true to ourselves. The Lexington and Big Sandy road will soon be finished. It will constitute part of a shorter railroad line between New York and Marshall, Texas, than any yet defined. It points directly to Memphis and Marshall, Texas, in one direction, and to New York in the other. Study the map and the fact is as fixed as any law of trade and as inexorable as any the Orient and land of gold. Elsewhere in this paper the reader will find the views of Lewis D. Campbell and Mayor Maginnis, two prominent politicians of Ohio. It will be seen from the sentiments expressed the people of the december of the re-admisby these gentlemen that the "new departure" is considered nothing but an unconditional surrender to Radii calism. The Democrats who isvor the new movement seem to forget the united States.
